

2016 CICALICS ACADEMY

“Contemporary Innovation Theory and Methods”

CALL FOR ATTENDEES

25-30 August 2016, Sino-Danish Center, Beijing, China

The CICALICS ACADEMY aims to provide the most advanced platform for PhD students to acquire academic skills, communicate and study, and to promote the exchange and cooperation between the PhD students at home and abroad. CICALICS will invite from abroad and from China well-known scholars in the field of innovation to deliver lectures for the PhD students. The participants are encouraged to present their papers related to their PhD-project. Every presented paper will be commented and guided by two experts.

The CICALICS 2016 is organized as follows:

1. CICALICS 2016 is scheduled from August 25 to August 30, 2016
2. CICALICS 2016 has two parts: a CICALICS PhD-course (Academy) (August 25-26 and August 29-30) and a CICALICS Workshop (August 27-28). The PhD-students take part in both the PhD-course (Academy) and the Workshop
3. The CICALICS PhD-course consists of two main activities:
 - a. Lectures on innovation and associated methodology by international professors
 - b. Presentation of a paper/chapter from or related to your PhD-work followed by comments from fellow students and international professors (each ½ an hour)
4. The CICALICS workshop consists of three main activities:
 - a. Selected Key Note speeches by international and Chinese experts
 - b. Paper presentation and discussion in parallel tracks
 - c. A Business Forum with 2-4 representatives from well-established Chinese and foreign invested companies (Business Forum).

PhD-students take part in both the PhD-course and the workshop with or without a paper.

Eligible Applicants and Application Procedure

Eligible applicants are both Chinese and international PhD students, preferably at the 2nd year or above. A maximum of 25 PhD-students can participate. Deadline for applications: July 15, 2016 (extended until August 12th).

Applicants should (1) fill in an application form; (2) send a short description (title and abstract) of their research project; and (3) the title and abstract of the paper/chapter of the dissertation, you want to present and have discussed with the professor-panel.

If accepted for the PhD-course, a full paper/chapter will have to be submitted in English (length of 2000-4000 words, space 1.5 lines and 12 size font) together with an abstract (length max 300 words). Deadline for the full paper/chapter submission is August 1st, 2016.

It is expected that applicants present original paper/chapter related to the dissertation work or to ongoing research work in the field of innovation. It should include research objectives, analytical framework and method, source of data, as well as potential or achieved results.

Please send your application to: Daojuan Wang (daw@business.aau.dk) no later than July 15, 2016.

All PhD-students are also invited to take part in the CICALICS-Workshop. You can take part with or without presenting a paper. The paper cannot be the same as the paper/chapter for the PhD-course. If you want to present a paper at the CICALICS Workshop, please complete special section in the application form.

Fees:

- No application fee is charged,
- Participants should themselves pay expenditure for travel and local accommodations.

Selection and admission:

The Academic Committee will decide admission based on excellence. Admission notice will be sent out by July 25th, 2016 (or August 15th for delayed submissions).
