2018

CALL FOR APPLICANTS

22-28 August 2018, Zhejiang University, China

Deadline has been extended to 15 June 2018.

As an important part of China's Innovation Circles and Academy – a Network on Learning, Innovation and Competence Building Systems, CICALICS ACADEMY aims to provide the most advanced platform for PhD students to communicate and study, and to promote the exchange and cooperation between the PhD students at home and abroad. The forum will invite well-known experts in the field of innovation to deliver lectures for the students. The paper submitted by each PhD student will also be commented and guided by two experts.

Eligible Applicants and Application:

Eligible applicants are both Chinese and international PhD students at advanced stage (at least at the second year).

First priority will be given to PhD students who work explicitly on issues related to “Innovation and Growth Strategy in the Connected World”.

It is expected that applicants present original paper/chapter related to the dissertation work or to ongoing research work in the field of innovation management, innovation systems and economic development. It should include research objectives, analytical framework and method, source of data, as well as potential or achieved results.

22-28 August | HangZhou

Applicants should (1) fill in an application form, send (2) one page of explanation on dissertation topic and definition of research questions and (3) a full paper or dissertation chapter of about 15-20 pages in length together with an abstract of the paper with 300-500

English words. The paper or chapter is what you will present at the Academy for exchange and comments. Lecturers especially those who will teach on methodological courses will use them as input when organizing their lectures.

Academy participants are invited to attend the Asialics Conference 2018 on 25-26 August, 2018.

Please send your application to niim@zju.edu.cn, not later than 15 June 2018. If you want to know more about this, you can always call +86 571 88206889 and browse the website <http://www.som.zju.edu.cn/niim/meeting/academy.php>

Fees:

- No application fee is charged;
- Participants should pay for travel and local accommodations by themselves.

Selection and Admission:

The Academic Committee will decide admission based on excellence. Totally 30 (max) PhD students will be selected. Admission notice will be sent out not later than 31 June 2018.
